A UNIQUE PERSPECTIVE

Trey brings more than real estate knowledge to his clients with a natural eye for style, unrivaled industry connections, and first-hand experience with the highest standards for residential design and sales. Applying 25 years of experience in the architecture and design industry, Trey intuitively knows how to pair people with perfect properties. His clients understand that when they work with Trey LaFave, they are getting a versatile resource to fully capitalize their real estate portfolio, personally and professionally.

His family developed their reputation in the financial side of real estate, giving Trey a foundation while allowing him to infuse his passion for design. While earning his Master's in Architecture, he lived in New York, Greece, and Italy focusing on design and architecture from antiquity to mid-century modern. Trey began his career in Atlanta and Sea Island, Georgia. He would later work with New York AD100 boutique firms designing luxury projects for The St. Regis, Baccarat, and The Corcoran Group. Catching the attention of Sotheby's auction house, Trey would go on to design Sotheby's show houses curated with some of the finest decorative arts from around the world. Trey's projects have been featured in many publications and online for CNN and Architectural Digest.

In Palm Springs, Trey continues to broaden his professional footprint by joining the Sotheby's International Realty brand after closing over $20,000,000 in sales together with his previous team.
